Hanover, July 1, N. S.

ON Saturday the 21ſt of laſt Month his Majeſty landed at Helvoetſluys about Three in the Afternoon, and immediately went in a Coach for Newſluys, where one of the Yachts of the States General was attending in order to carry his Majeſty to Schiedam; but the Wind and Tide being both contrary, his Majeſty went into a Four Oar Boat, which landed him at Schiedam about Nine in the Evening; his own Coach and Horſes waiting there, his Majeſty proceeded forthwith, and paſſed through Rotterdam about Ten at Night, where he was ſaluted by a triple Diſcharge of the Cannon from the Boomkeys, and came to Utrecht after Midnight, and reſted at M. Pouchoud's. The next Morning about Eight his Majeſty ſet out from thence, and came to Delden at Nine in the Evening, where he ſupped and reſted that Night. The next Morning, being Monday the 23d, his Majeſty ſet forward about Five, and came to Bentham about Nine, where his Majeſty was likewiſe ſaluted by a triple Diſcharge of the Cannon from the Caſtle; to which Place his Majeſty was attended by a Party of the Dutch Guards from Station to Station, where they were relieved by a Party of Dragoons of his own Troops, who eſcorted his Majeſty to his own Houſe at Dippenau, where his Majeſty arrived about Seven in the Evening, and was received there by a great many of the Nobility and other Perſons of Diſtinction, who were come thither to compliment him on his ſafe Arrival in his German Dominions, and was alſo attended there by three Troops of Brigadier General Wendt's Dragoons. His Majeſty ſupped and lay there that Night, and the next Morning, being Tueſday the 24th, his Majeſty reviewed the ſaid three Troops, who performed the manual Exerciſe on Foot, and went through the Evolutions with great Dexterity and Exactneſs, with which his Majeſty was well pleaſed. They made a very fine Appearance, being new cloathed. His Majeſty afterwards ſet out, eſcorted by a freſh Party of Dragoons, for Herenhauſen, where he arrived that Day between Two and Three a-Clock in the Afternoon, in perfect Health, and was received and complimented by the Lords of the Regency, and a great Number of the Nobility and other Perſons of Diſtinction.

On Sunday laſt in the Morning, the Right Honourable the Lord Harrington, arrived here, and waited on his Majeſty at Herenhauſen.

Thomas Robinſon, Eſq; his Majeſty's Miniſter Plenipotentiary to the Court of Vienna, having obtained the King's Leave to wait on him at this Place, arrived here ſome Days before his Majeſty.

Laſt Night Count Rantzau, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Denmark to the Court of Great Britain, arrived here from England.

Yeſterday in the Evening a French Comedy was acted at the Theatre in Herenhauſen Gardens.
